RELIGIOUS.

—On account of the serious illness of his wife Rev. J. J. Dickey was unable to assume his new charge as pastor of the church at East Maysville. Rev. Dickey filled his pulpit at the Hutchison Chapel, Sunday morning and evening.

—The Salvation Army in the United States has started a campaign throughout the nation for the raising of a fund through free-will gifts of $100,000. The money will be used in purchasing and equipping twenty-three automobile ambulances for service with the American troops in France. Paris and Bourbon county people will be solicited by representatives from the Lexington branch of the organization.

—Revival services began at the Christian church, in Mt. Sterling, Sunday. Rev. Mark Collis, of Lexington, is conducting the services, assisted by the pastor, Eld. Clyde Darsie. The choir is under the direction of Mr. A. L. Boatright, chorister of the Paris Christian church.

The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat pays this tribute to Mr. Boatright, which is an eminently just one in every respect:

"The song leader will be A. L. Boatright, of Paris, Ky. While a stranger here, Mr. Boatright is well known as a musician throughout the State. For years he has been a teacher of music and choir director. He has led the congregational singing in several State conventions. He is a splendid soloist, with a tenor voice of rare sweetness and feeling."

PARISIAN BURGLARIZED.

Burglars entered the home of Mr. Reuben Ford Offutt, in Georgetown, Friday night, while he and Mrs. Offutt were attending the State Fair. Getting into the room where Mrs. Offutt's son-in-law, Mr. Will Kenney Ferguson, of Paris, and Mrs. Ferguson, were asleep, they secured $35 and a gold chain from Mr. Ferguson's trousers pockets. The police are working on the case, but with little chance of success, as the visitors left no clue.

Somehow a compliment is pleasing to a woman even when she knows it isn't sincere.

DEATHS.

JONES.

—The one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Jones died at the home of his parents near Jacksonville, and was buried in the Jacksonville cemetery. The child is survived by his parents and one sister.

SISTER EUPHRASIA.

—Sister Euphrasia, founder, and for nearly forty years the greatly beloved Superior of St. Joseph's Hospital, Lexington, is dead.

Her death occurred after a brief illness at the Nazareth Convent of the Sisters of Charity, Nazareth, Ky., at 2:30 o'clock Saturday morning, according to a telephone message received by the hospital authorities in Lexington.

The funeral was held at Nazareth at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and was private, owing to her expressed wish, made before she left Lexington and repeated since. Masses were held in Lexington for her. She was laid to rest by the side of her sister, who was Miss Mary Stafford, at Nazareth.

In November, 1914, Sister Euphrasia celebrated her golden jubilee, and was the recipient of many honors. At the close of the Civil War she was connected with St. Joseph's Infirmary at Louisville, and had also been interested in Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospitals in Lexington.

LACY.

—Mrs. Sophia M. Lacy, an aged and respected woman of Covington, died at her home in that city last week, after a protracted illness of dropsy.

Mrs. Lacy was the mother of Mr. Alex Mellinger, proprietor of the Richmond Hotel, in Richmond, formerly an L. & N. engineer who, with his family, resided in the Thornton Division, in Paris. She was twice married, and leaves, besides Mr. Mellinger, six daughters. She was a devout member of the Presbyterian church, and was a splendid woman. Mr. Mellinger's daughter, Miss Edith Mellinger, and his sister, Mrs. Charles Wiedemann, who had been spending the summer in Colorado Springs, were called home on account of the illness of Mrs. Lacy, but she died before they arrived in Covington.

Funeral services were held at the deceased's residence, on Greenup street, in Covington, conducted by Rev. Hugh Lucht, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, with burial in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Mellinger was the only son of the family, and to him the sympathy of those in Paris, who knew him well is extended in the sad and irreparable loss he has sustained—the loss of his best friend—his mother.

BISHOP.

—The body of Mrs. Ben Bishop, aged forty-eight, who died at the home of her uncle, Mr. James J. Curtis, on Tenth street, at four o'clock Saturday morning, was taken to Cincinnati, Sunday morning, accompanied by the bereaved husband and other relatives. From Cincinnati the body was taken to her old home in Morenci, Michigan, for burial.

Mrs. Bishop's death was due to septicaemia, induced by a carbuncle on the back of her neck, which refused to yield to treatment. She had been ill for some time, but it was not thought the trouble would assume a fatal turn.

Mrs. Bishop was the wife of Mr. Ben Bishop, a former member of the Paris police force, and now in charge of an engine in the Louisville & Nashville roundhouse in the South Paris yards. She was a niece of Mr. James J. Curtis, and came here from Cincinnati several years ago to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis. After her marriage to Mr. Bishop, they went to Port Arthur, Texas, where they resided until about two months ago, when Mr. Bishop took his present position.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Bishop is survived by relatives in Cincinnati and Cleveland, O., and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Troeger, of Morenci, Michigan.

DISTRICT BOARD EASTERN DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY.
WALTER PRICHARD, Chairman.
H. T. SOAPER, Secretary.
Of the above named young men, seven have reported on the first call and are now in training at Camp Zachary Taylor, near Louisville.

NERVY CHAP SELLS HORSE TO FORMER POLICEMAN.

A young white boy giving his name as James Smith and home anywhere, was arrested in Winchester, Saturday afternoon and placed in jail on a charge of attempting to dispose of stolen property.

When placed under arrest Smith was attempting to dispose of a horse and buggy to former policeman John Ballard and John Adams, both of Winchester. The men became suspicious and called the police, who took him to jail.

Smith first priced the horse and buggy and harness to the men for $185, and then sold it to them later for $60. After his arrest he confessed that it was not his horse and buggy, and stated that he came to Paris on the morning train from Cincinnati and hired the horse and buggy from a livery stable, and drove to Winchester. He did not remember the name of the liveryman who hired him the outfit.

Inquiry of Paris liverymen did not divulge any knowledge of Smith or his actions. He is being detained in the Clark county jail pending further investigation of his case.

SEE GREAT HORSES.

Every great trotter and pacer in active training will be seen at America's greatest trotting meeting at Lexington, October 1 to 13. As the track is the best in the world, records will probably be lowered. Reduced rates on railroads.
